

The Chelsea WaterFront

90 Lots Rd, London SW10 0SW, UK

A Renaissance of Heritage and Modern Elegance

For Sale : £ 4,853,000

Description

The development, nestled in South West of Chelsea, is a masterclass in balancing heritage with modernity. The original turbine hall, now a 100-metre atrium adorned with evergreen trees and illuminated by a stunning light installation, stands as a testament to its industrial legacy. Meanwhile, the two glass residential towers, designed by the visionary Sir Terry Farrell, offer panoramic views of the Thames—a reminder of why Chelsea remains one of the world's most coveted addresses.
